[Redacted Address]

Dear Mr. Bernays:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to express his appreciation for the interesting reprint about your recent study of the attitudes created by American films abroad in terms of the diverse views of our envoys.

We have only a general interest in the question of films abroad and believe that some of the specific problems underscored in this article are of more direct concern to the U. S. Information Agency and the Department of State. We suggest that they would also be interested in your appraisal of these problems.

Thank you for sending us this interesting by-product of your study.

Sincerely yours,

[Redacted Signature]
